GAP YEAR EXPERIENCES: 2015-2016

- Bhau Daji Lad Museum : I volunteered at a heritage museum for three weeks during my gap year. I was an art history guide for school children, and shared my knowledge about the history of Indian artifacts with them.
- Work Experience at Noesis Ventures: I interned at my father's investment banking company for three months. While interning there, I learnt to invest independently, and gained knowledge about private wealth management, international trading and wind power generation.
- Tao Art Gallery: Working at the gallery gave me an insight into art curation, creative expression, and the importance of aesthetics in a society. I also attended workshops and lectures by prominent Indian artists, and was introduced to performance and installation arts.

- 2 ONLINE COURSES:-

- Digital Marketing: I did an online course in 'Marketing in a Digital World' by the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. This gave me an insight into how digital tools such as the internet and 3D printing have revolutionized the era of marketing

- Psychology: I did a course in 'Introduction to Psychology' by the University of Toronto. This introduced me to the concepts of cognitive abilities, human development, and human behavior.

- Internship at Accessorize India: Being interested in fashion business, I interned for 3 weeks at Accessorize (UK brand). I worked in the following departments: Marketing, Merchandising and Retail.

- WEEK 1: I worked in the Marketing Department, where I learnt about Digital Marketing, Public Relations Tracking of fashion magazines, Blogger Collaboration, and Designing Contests on Instagram for Promoting the Brand.

- WEEK 2: While working in the Merchandising Department, I learnt about the concept of merchandising (sourcing, storage and distribution of merchandise). I learnt about E-commerce/ online shopping, and learnt to work on Excel Sheets.

- WEEK 3: While working at the Accessorize store, I learnt about what to display on the shop window, about aesthetic appearance, and the different stories (colors and mood) of the season. I also learnt about the floor layout of the store, and strategic placement of goods.

- Internship at Viacom 18: I interned for duration of 4 weeks at the Viacom18 Company, in the Consumer Products Department. I job shadowed the Marketing Head where I learnt how to design campaigns for MTV products(clothing), Roadies Jackets and Colors Voylla Jewelry.

- While working there I also worked to organize data on Excel Sheets, design contest to win free merchandise and make PowerPoint presentations for our company's clients. Additionally, I design campaign slogans for various Social Media platforms such as Twitter, Instagram and Facebook.

ECONOMIC EXPERIENCES:

- Valuation on 3 Online Portals (Research Paper) : I examined portals such as Snapchat 'Discover', Uber and Pinterest. I also studied the valuation of these companies and compared them to those of other portals.
- Valuation of Prominent Indian Artists (Research Paper): Being an art enthusiast, I studied the art works of legendary Indian artists, and examined factors that add value to the paintings of these artists.
- Economics I.A. (IB): On topics such as the European Union ban on Indian Alphonso Mangoes (International Economics) and Tax Breaks in Ireland (Macroeconomics).

PHOTOGRAPHY PURSUITS:
