1. Have you previously rushed Alpha Kappa Psi? (Yes/No)

No

2. What other organizations/extracurriculars are you a part of?

Martial Arts Club

3. How will you contribute to the fraternity? (max 300 words)

As an international student, I think that cultural diversity is most definitely something that I can bring to the fraternity as AKPsi is well known for its international presence. In my eyes, this is something very important that should be preserved in the fraternity, and I would be delighted to share my experience and knowledge of foreign topics with fellow brothers.

Additionally, I consider myself to be a motivated, driven, and result oriented young man, so I look forward to forming part of the fraternity in order to continuously innovate and develop AKPsi in new ways. This would be an achievement for me as I love forming part of a team and working together to achieve new goals. When I interned in DDB Worldwide, I helped my team come up with ideas to renovate their mobile app, and our manager took my proposals into serious consideration.

Finally, I see myself as a social and open minded person. Leaving professionalism aside, I thoroughly enjoy hanging out with friends and I am eager to expand my social circle through AKPsi. I am convinced that if I make it through this fall's rushing process, I will provide as much support and help to my brothers in every way I can.

4. How do you measure success? (max 300 words)

I personally have a very specific definition for success: success to me is setting a goal, planning the steps required to achieve it, and effectively implementing that plan. Once I think I've achieved that goal, I've succeeded. Measuring success however is something that can be done in many different ways. You could measure success by knowing how many times you have achieved your specific goals, or you could measure success by following the profit your company makes. When I was in the process of starting up a watch company, I set myself lots of different goals which I would achieve little by little. In the end, my company became profitable and that was when I knew that I had succeeded.

5. What previous experience from your past makes you feel like you relate to AKPsi?

If I had to choose one experience that makes me feel like I can relate to AKPsi it would be when my classmates and I decided to create our own soccer team. We registered our team name into a year-long league and got personalized jerseys with numbers and names. We hired a coach and trained twice a week, playing games every weekend. In the end, we came second! The reason why this experience makes me relate to AKPsi is because for a year, I had a group of friends with whom I became very close thanks to the teamwork involved in soccer, but at the same time we had school and class together, so we could help each other academically as well as socially. Thanks to all the meetings and activities that I have attended at AKPsi these past weeks, I have the impression that it is a fraternity where brothers can fully rely on each other both academically and socially, just like my soccer team.
