3. Out of all the applicants, what do you think makes you unique? Why do you believe you should be extended a bid? (200 words max)

1. Spades, Hearts, Clubs or Diamonds. Which one are you and why? (150 words max)

Amongst the four card suits, I am the hearts suit. According to the European interpretation of the card suits, Hearts represent the warmth of spring and signifies emotion. I believe that this directly resonates with me as my biggest value is love, family and relationships. I believe that the relationships with friends, family, colleagues, and others are what shapes the happiness in my life. Every day, when I see my friends on campus or talk to friends from back home or call my family, I tend to find myself smiling and not knowing that time goes by. I can confidently say that I genuinely care a lot about how someone feels and is doing. I believe that it is my compassion and emotions, that I am very interested in community service as portrayed in my efforts with Friends with the Homeless and the Chinese-American Planning Council.

2. If you were a brother of Alpha Kappa Psi, how would you contribute professionally to the brotherhood? (150 words max)

Granted that I become a brother of Alpha Kappa Psi, I think that I can contribute a lot. For example, I can contribute my strong suit: public speaking. I can provide help to other brothers who may not have great confidence when it comes to public speaking. My skill is directly portrayed through my role as a tour guide for Babson College. I can also contribute in terms of service, in line with AKPsi's core values. I have participated in many service events including working for Friends of the Homeless and the American Red Cross in high school. Additionally, I can contribute in terms of innovation. AKPsi is known for hosting many events across campus and I believe that my experience as the President of Red Cross Club in high school can help me do the same for AKPsi as 80% of events that were hosted by the club were original ideas and 20% of events were events held by the Red Cross headquarters.

3. Out of all the applicants, what do you think makes you unique? Why do you believe you should be extended a bid? (200 words max)

As a Babson student, it is hard to stand out but what sets me apart from other applicants is my passion, integrity, and aggressiveness. Having played volleyball, being passionate and aggressive towards things that I am interested in has become a part of me. While aggressiveness is commonly viewed as a negative word, I feel that aggressivity has made me a better leader as well as a stronger person. I am willing to take on risks and am also willing to change according to situations that require me to. My volleyball coach always told me “Sometimes in life, its good to be aggressive”. Thus, I should be extended a bid because I can provide a lot to AKPsi and also feel that I can also learn a lot from joining AKPsi. Throughout the recruitment process, I was able to meet many brothers who have had more experience than me. Especially, during the professional event, I was able to realize that without the brothers, my resume may never have been ready for submission for internships. I learned a lot simply about resumes and believe that by joining AKPsi, I’ll have the chance to learn even more.
